EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Alexander D. Foreman on 3/22/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Replace Abstract with

-- A method and system for online education that includes an educator provider system and at least one student system connected via a network means so that at least one lesson can be transmitted from the provider system to the student system. One embodiment of the present invention uses an interactive lesson with at least one audio file that controls the pace of the presentation of the lesson. The present invention can further comprise a mechanism for generating a lesson completion record after a student has completed the lesson. The lesson completion record is immediately transmitted upon completion of the lesson to a student and/or an education authority in order to certify that the student has completed the lesson and has spent the requisite minimum time period on that lesson. --

This amendment is made to meet the word requirement for Abstracts.

Notice of Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the presentation of at least one lesson being controlled by an audio controlling means based on a received audio file, so that at least one student cannot advance in the at least one lesson until the audio file has completed playing (Claim 1 and similar language in independent Claims 18, 22-23, 25, 28, 31-33). The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the presentation of at least one lesson being controlled by a video controlling means based on a received audio file, so that at least one student cannot advance in the at least one lesson until the video file has completed playing (Claims 17, 24). See pp. 6-11 of Applicant's Remarks filed on 8/17/04.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
